Call for Papers
33rd Annual Hume Society Conference

At Koblenz, Federal Republic of Germany

August 7–10, 2006

“Hume and Culture”
“Hume and German Philosophy”
“Hume’s Aesthetics”

Among the invited speakers are:
Donald Livingston
Mary Mothersill and Jane McIntyre
Manfred Kuehn
Paul Guyer

Invited panels will include
“Hume as a Historian”
(with Roger Emerson, Claudia Schmidt, and Fritz Van Holthoon)
and “Hume’s Virtue Ethics”
(with John Cooper, Stephen Darwall, and Christine Swanton).

Papers bearing some relation to the conference themes will be especially welcome; however, papers on any aspect of Hume’s life and works will be considered. The conference organizers would particularly like to invite submissions for a special session honoring the work of the late Richard H. Popkin. Papers should be no more than thirty minutes reading length with self-references should be in the third person. The author should be identified only on a front cover sheet.

Papers may be submitted in French, Spanish, German, or English, but must include an English-language or German-language abstract. Authors are requested to submit cover sheets, abstracts, and papers in one file as an e-mail attachment in MS Word or Rich Text Format.

Submissions must be sent to secretary@humesociety.org or submitted using the electronic submission feature of the conference website, http://www.humesociety.org/upload/Koblenz/upload.html, by November 1, 2005.
